Official Canvass.

The official canvass of the vote of Rock county for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court was made in this city to-day. Judge Knowlton's majority in the county is 642 over Judge Cole.

In the town of Magnolia James Knowlton received nine votes, and in the 3d ward of Beloit two votes were cast for O. Cole. All these votes are excluded in the 642 majority for Knowlton.

C. A. Eldredge received 63 votes in the county.

Judicial.

The Madison Argus says that additional reports give Cole 200 in Trempealeau county. The Baraboo Republic says Cole's majority in Sauk county will be about 500, instead of 1,200 as we have had it. The Manitowish Pilot says Knowlton's majority in that county will be from 600 to 1,000—in eight towns it is 421. A majority of 500 is claimed for Cole in Oconto, and 2,000 in Fond du Lac. Marquette county is reported at 200 for Cole, instead of 500 for Knowlton.

PORTAGE COUNTY.—The Pinery says Knowlton's majority will be about 800 in the county.

KEWAUNEE.—The vote of this county was given almost wholly for Eldredge; Cole has a majority of 51 over Knowlton.

JACKSON.—The Jackson County Banner gives the returns from Jackson county.—Cole receives 579, Knowlton 46, and Gale 2. Cole over Knowlton 533.

SHEBOYGAN.—The Sheboygan Times says Cole will probably have a plurality of 200 in the county.

APPLETON.—The city of Appleton gives Cole 201, Knowlton 28, Eldredge 75.

Adulterated Kerosene.

A day or two ago we alluded to the manufacture and sale of an adulterated Kerosene oil in Chicago, and we now find in the New York Tribune of the 4th inst., the following notice of a similar dangerous and swindling practice in that city:

Every one understands the dangers attendant upon the use of camphens, burning fluid, rosin oil, and kindred illuminating fluids; and if people use them, they do so with a full knowledge of the consequences which may follow. We are not sure, therefore, that the legislature were wrong in refusing to prohibit their sale for such purposes. But with Kerosene oil the case is different. This oil, in its pure state, is free from explosive or dangerous properties, and, affording at the same time a superior light, it is much sought after. Unscrupulous dealers have therefore been tempted to adulterate it with fuel oil, camphene and other substances of a cheaper kind, the product being a highly dangerous compound, exploding without warning, and scattering liquid fire all around. Several cases, as our columns will testify, have recently occurred, in which those who have been made victims of the cupidity of these vendors of adulterated Kerosene, have lost their lives, while others have been horribly burned, and will carry upon their features through life the terrible traces of fire. Once begun, it is not expected that this pernicious practice will be discontinued, unless the legislature should interfere to protect the public. Let the adulteration of Kerosene be made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, and make the destruction of human life by its agency manslaughter. Do this, and the public may once more use it without fear of being blown up or burned to death by its counterfeit.

We are informed by one of the druggists in this city that the adulterated article is in use in this section of the country. The genuine article may be tested by pouring a small quantity where a lighted match can be applied to it. The adulterated article burns into a flame as soon as the flame of the match comes in contact with it. The genuine will not.

MORE OF THE BANKS.—It is a hard or an impossible task to keep track of the fluctuating action of the banks in relation to the currency. The Chicago Journal of Saturday evening says:

"The bankers this morning determined to throw out of 'depreciated currency' the bills of the Bank of Appleton, Wis., and of the Oconto County Bank, Wis."

"The bills of the 'Bank of Wisconsin,' 'Farmers & Mechanics Bank,' and 'La Crosse County Bank,' all of Wisconsin, heretofore thrown out, have been restored to the list of 'good banks,' and are now received on deposit par, their securities having been made good."

The State Stock Bank, at Eau Claire has been discredited in Milwaukee. Its circulation is $254,965. Brokers' bid it at 80 cents on the dollar.

The Bank of the Federal Union, Illinois, has made its good its securities. This makes four of the rejected Illinois banks that have put up securities. The others are the Lancaster, Bank of Benton and the Pamel.

The general price of uncurrent money in Chicago is 75 cents on the dollar.

According to the late foreign news, hostilities appear to be imminent between the Austrians and Piedmontese.

The receipts of produce are falling off in Milwaukee, in consequence of the disturbance in the money market.

KATYAN BANK.—The Wisconsin, of yesterday, says—"Mr. Fitch of the Bank of Milwaukee, has received a dispatch from this bank, stating that it has made good its securities with the Bank Comptroller."

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER CALAMITY.—Prince Albert is to visit Canada and probably the United States the coming summer.

STORAGE IN MILWAUKEE.—The Sentinel of the 9th says:

We have been asked lately by correspondents and others, when winter rates of storage on wheat would cease here. We have been unable to ascertain definitely, but the probability is that no change will be made in the rates of storage until after the first of May. Our warehouses are nearly all full, and are suffering some inconvenience in storing the grain coming, and until more space is made there will of course be no object in reducing the rates.

A NOTION EXPLODED.—The Baraboo Republic says that the old notion that this is a world of change is exploded in that region. No one has seen any change in a month.

LA CROSSE COUNTY.—The Republican says that the new county board will stand thirteen republicans to three democrats.

Gov. Pickens has sent a halftone message to the convention of South Carolina, containing many details respecting the military affairs of that state. He informs them that 600 men will be required to garrison the forts in Charleston harbor, and that the expenditures of the state have been $640,317.

ZOUAVE REGIMENT.—The "president of the confederate states" has accepted and drafted into the regular army the Zouave regiment of New Orleans, numbering 630 men, commanded by Col. Coppen, formerly of the French army. A large majority of the regiment, it is stated, have seen real service in Europe—all are French, and the orders are to be given in the French language.

According to the National Republican, the P. T. Herbert, who is working to get Arizona out of the Union, is the ex-member of congress from California, who killed an Irish waiter at Willard's Hotel, in Washington, about five years ago.

COLLECTORS AT NEW YORK.—The report of the United States collector for New York is just published, and from it we learn that the amount received for duties during the month of March 1861, was $2,288,547.27, against $3,372,547.20 in 1860, being a deficiency of $1,083,990.93.

Interesting from Pensacola. Condition of Affairs on Ship and Shore.

UNION STATE PRISONERS SHOWN.

Monday, March 26th, 1861.

An opportunity offers to one more let you know how things look down this way during these troublesome times.

About ten days ago Maj. Gen. Bragg (who is now at this place) saw fit to stop all communication between us and the shore, and Capt. O'Hara of Fort McRae sent us word that if the Wyandotte did not keep a little further off he would fire into her.

Capt. Adams, wishing to avoid a collision with these folks, keeps himself and us on board ship. Our supplies have been cut off from Mobile, and the New Orleans steamer, in passing in and out of the harbor, avoids our boarding boat, so you see we are hard up for news of any kind.

Capt. Adams addressed a letter to Mr. Wells, secretary of the state, last Tuesday, and in it told him that starvation stared him in the face, and unless we heard from him or received relief in ten days from date, he would use his own discretion about leaving the place. We are all on half-rations.—We have plenty of money, but of what use is that to us now? Three days ago we transferred from the Brooklyn to this ship 32 troops, and sent her to Key West and Havana for supplies.

We expect to be back in a few days. In the meantime they may attack Fort Pickens, and we have got to watch them, about 3,000 bayonets to reinforce the fort, with masked batteries playing on us from all quarters, in conjunction with McRae and Barancas. Is it not a pleasant picture to look upon? You must know there is an armistice in existence between Bragg and Adams. Bragg will not attack Pickens unless we attempt to reinforce it. We see troops going in nearly every day from New Orleans, Mobile and other places, and can see them at work erecting sandbag batteries, &c., and here we are cooped up like a lot of chickens, waiting for the administration to do something. They have neglected us shamefully at Washington. They do not answer our communications. They do not send us anything to eat, and yet expect a ship like ours, which has been out over her time, with a broken down and worn out crew, and an old tub like the St. Louis, to do all their fighting in southern waters, while vessels not yet three months in commission are rolling in clover off New York battery. Everything in our ship is discontented and no wonder. You do not know one-tenth part of what we have suffered lately. They say the darkest hour of the night is just before the break of day; it is pitch dark with us just about this time.

Three nights ago we heard the booming of cannon, and saw lights passing and re-passing on shore. We beat to quarters, called "all hands and boats," mustered our companies, and were all ready to go over the side, when the little Wyandotte came steaming out to let us know it was a false alarm. If I live a hundred years I will never forget the feelings I had when I was loading my revolvers. We were all busy with our own thoughts, I can assure you, and for about ten minutes hardly anything was heard save the tick, tick, of a Colt, or the dull thud of a rifle ramrod. We did all our little valuations up, and directed them each with a letter to our friends at home, in case anything disagreeable might happen to us while attempting to reach the fort.

We have on board now nearly 600 men, with but enough to last about ten or twelve days longer. We have about thirty days' water on board. We bought most of that before communication was stopped, at a rate of six cents per gallon. All our fish lines are in requisition every day, but sometimes the fish even secede. We heard a rumor lately that Fort Sumter was evacuated, and that Pickens was soon to follow, but don't believe it. We will hear all the news when the Brooklyn comes back, and until that time have got to remain in this miserable state of suspense.

EXTRADITION CASE.—A tall southerner, who has been boarding at the St. Lawrence Hall for the past few days, was arrested and lodged in jail on Tuesday morning, at the instance of a creditor who came on from New York for him, after tracking him through a great part of the southern states. The amount which he is alleged to have swindled his creditors out of is $140,000, and was so swindled while he was residing and doing a large business in Brownsville, Texas, under the name of E. Karpelas.

He is said to defy his creditors, and offers to contest with them for fifty cents on the dollar. On the other hand, it is stated, that the plaintiffs have acted on the most able legal advice, and feel confident that the case is one which comes under the provisions of the extradition treaty. Under present political circumstances it remains to be seen how the treaty will stand with respect to Texas, a seceded state.—Monroe Gazette, 27th.

AN EXPEDITION TO MACKINAC STRAITS.—An exploring expedition to the straits, sent out from Chicago, to ascertain the condition of the ice, has returned and reports that it will probably be open in a few days for the passage of vessels. The Chicago Times reports some amusing incidents of the voyage:

Some points in the vicinity of the straits, lately visited by the steam tug McQueen, are considerably out of the world. Cut off from anything like communication by the arctic severity of winter in that region, the first arrival in the spring is considered, by the few isolated families who eke out an existence there, a mercurial Godsend.

Beauregard, the chief mogul eagerly inquired who was President of the United States, and, upon being informed, emphatically exclaimed, "Durn'd if I didn't think so!"

Whisky and tobacco were eagerly inquired for by the islanders, whose supplies of these "necessaries of life" had "gin out" some time ago. The mogul asked Capt. Prindle if it was true that Chicago was going to be annexed to the city of Milwaukee.

A Milwaukeean had just come from last fall. A tall, raw-boned, bare-headed, bare-armed, crooked-necked, red-headed woman wished to know what kind of bonnets were worn in Chicago. She said she had an old copy of a Chicago paper which stated that u-b-e-s-o's (rushes) were much used, and she had trimmed her's with balrashes.

Another shower in prospect.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

The Illinois has taken on board 2,000 barrels assorted stores, 600 muskets, a large quantity of ammunition, and two parks of artillery, with large gun carriages, and seventy thousand dollars in specie. She sails in the morning.

The Post's Washington dispatch states that Gen. Scott continues active personal supervision of the military there, which is considered sufficient to protect the city. Guard around the capitol and public buildings have been renewed and armed to the teeth.

The Post quotes a private letter from Charleston, which states that Anderson intends to retort on the Charlestonians stopping their supplies by prohibiting further intercourse with water with the forts that surround him.

The Commercial's Washington despatch says Lieut. Talbot left for Fort Sumter to-day with instructions to Anderson, and will undoubtedly be re-admitted to the fort, although stringent regulations have been adopted by the secessionists.

Large quantities of ordnance, ammunition, &c., have been transported to-day from Governor's Island to the steamship Baltic, including one hundred gun carriages for large columbiads, marked for Fort Pickens. She sailed at 7 o'clock this evening.

CHARLESTON, April 8.

Gen. Beauregard has ordered out five thousand troops. Companies are constantly arriving and being put in position. New batteries are also being constructed.

PITTSBURGH, April 8.

An enthusiastic meeting of the business men of Pittsburgh was held to-day, in regard to currency. There is the strongest determination to receive depreciated money, except at the broken rate. Missouri and Virginia 4 per cent. discount.

HICKMAN, Ky., April 8.

The business portion of the town was burned on Saturday night. Loss $125,000. Insured $7,000.

CHICAGO, April 8.

One hundred and six fugitive slaves left this city last night for Canada, via the Michigan Southern railroad. It is estimated that over one thousand fugitive slaves have arrived in this city since last fall, most of whom have left since the arrest of five by the United States marshal.

DETROIT, April 8.

About three hundred fugitive slaves, principally from Illinois, passed into Canada at this point since last Saturday, and large numbers are reported on the way. Many are entirely destitute, and much suffering is anticipated, notwithstanding efforts for their relief.

HARRISBURG, April 8.

Gov. Curtin will send a message to the legislature to-morrow, recommending an appropriation of $500,000 for the purchase of munitions of war. The message takes the ground that as our people, so long peaceful, have lost the military habits necessary, amid the disturbed condition of the surrounding states, they should begin to prepare the means of self-preservation, and it is the duty of the state to assist in the enforcement of the national laws. The republicans will hold a caucus on the subject to-morrow.

The state treasurer declares that the appropriation must be raised by law. In the legislature to-day, steps were taken for the postponement of the time of adjournment, for the consideration of this subject.

TO-DAYS REPORT.

[Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 9.

The Times' correspondent states that an attempt will be made to provision Fort Sumter by an armed vessel. If the secessionists fire on her they will be responsible for whatever trouble follows.

Col. Sumner and Capt. Britton have been ordered to the Pacific.

PENSACOLA, April 8.

The mechanics at the Warrington navy yard are becoming dissatisfied on account of no payment of wages.

A private telegraph from Fort Jackson says that a war steamer, disguised, passed the mouth of the Mississippi yesterday afternoon, and came within reach of guns of the fort. She was reconnoitering about until near morning, and then proceeded to sea.

NORFOLK, Va., April 8.

The Pawnee sails to-morrow for the south with orders. It is stated here that she landed 250 troops at Fort Monroe last night.

LONDON, Sunday.

The Opinion of Turin says the Sardinian ambassador at London had received no information from the British government that he would be received as minister of the kingdom of Italy.

Switzerland had given the same notification.

NEW YORK, April 9.

The Persia's passage was made in 9 days and 10 hours—said to be the shortest ever made westward.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

A letter from Richmond says Maj. McCulloch left last Wednesday for New Orleans.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, April 9.

Flour market heavy and so lower. Sales 14,000 bbls.; 5,205.25 super state; 5,204.50 super western; 5,304.50 common to med. ex. west'n. Wheat market dull and shade lower. Sales 65,000 bushels, 1.27 Raccoine spring; 1.26a, 30 Milwaukee club; 1.32 amber Iowa.

AN EVIDENCE OF LUNACY.—The Charleston Mercury is becoming crazier every day. It now professes to believe that the north-western states will soon be anxious to apply for admission into the southern confederacy and opposes the idea, in advance, with a great flourish of virtuous indignation.

As well might it expect the northwest to transfer itself to the moon, and, on that supposition, declare war against moonshine.

TRADITION IN NEW YORK.—The Evening Post says that certain prominent representatives of the cottonocracy in that city, have concocted a treasonable circular urging the people to accept the infamous proposition of Mayor Wood, and to declare the city part and parcel of the confederacy of Jefferson Davis. As yet, the precious document is carefully concealed. We would suggest that this is the very best disposition of it that can possibly be made.

UNION FEELING IN MARYLAND.—Senator Johnson of Tennessee spoke at Frederick City, Maryland, a few nights since. The meeting listened to him for two hours and more, and when he had done the farmers crowded round him and gave him their hard-fisted hands in token of their appreciation of his old Jackson doctrines.

Hints on Choosing Shade Trees.

The first consideration, of course, in selecting an ornamental tree, is the character of its foliage in the summer. If it has dark, rich green leaves, like the locust or horse chestnut, and is unaffected by drought or insects, there are good points, certainly. Then again, if the leaves push out early in the spring, like the mountain ash, or larch, or scarlet maple, this, too, is a good thing. Does it hold its leaves persistently through summer and late autumn, like the lindens and maples, or does it drop many of them, like the elm and butternut and buttonwood? And how about the colors of the foliage in the fall months? We could hardly bear to lose the crimson and purple and gold and scarlet of the maples, white ash, tulip trees and oaks.

These are settled points. But there are other things which should be taken into account. Deciduous trees are without foliage nearly six months of every year, and their appearance when naked, is worthy of consideration. Take the locust, again. It is fair to look upon in summer, when robed in full dress, but in the winter it is stiff and unbecomely. Worse yet, are the butternut, black walnut, coffee tree and Hercules' club. The child would blush to walk under their branches, would he? How different, in this respect, is the elm, which spreads out its fine network of branches, pendulous, swaying, graceful almost as in mid-summer. Nor the maple altogether deficient in this particular. It often has a delicate spray, particularly those varieties whose seed-vessels hang on into the winter. So with the linden, to some extent. The European mountain ash is enlivened by clusters of scarlet berries. And what these last named trees lack in gracefulness, is made up by their smoothness of trunk and limbs and symmetrical arrangement of branches.

The color of the bark of the trees deserves more consideration than it usually receives. This feature, hardly noticed in mid-summer, is revealed when the leaves fall. Among the trees to which we now refer, the golden barked ash is a good example. The red and the yellow barked lindens are also beautiful trees. Different from these, is the ash-leaved maple, with a bright green bark, also. The striped bark oak, and the red-trimmed maple are very desirable trees of this class. Among shrubs, the cornus sanguinea is almost as beautiful, with its bright shining red bark in winter, as with its abundant white blossoms in summer. All these trees and shrubs with various colored barks, are the more striking if they have a background of evergreens.—Am. Agriculturist.

UNION DEMONSTRATION IN RICHMOND.

THE FLAG OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY TOOK INTO RICHMOND.—An immense Union meeting was held in Richmond on Friday night, and appears to have been marked with deep earnestness and energy of purpose. At an early stage of the proceedings, the flag of the Union was displayed from the speakers' platform, and evoked an expression of natural enthusiasm quite thrilling in effect.

After the customary speeches were made on the occasion by James B. Dorman, of Rockbridge, and Col. J. B. Baldwin, of Augusta, members of the state convention, and by Mr. M. Johnson.

During Mr. Baldwin's speech, a party of young men entered the church, bearing a flag of the southern confederacy. The appearance of the new banner excited a storm of indignation. Its bearers were forced out of the building amid great confusion and excitement, and the obnoxious bunting being

The Delaware Grape.

An article recently published in the Gazette respecting the Delaware Grape has awakened considerable inquiry to know more of its history, and who vouches for the valuable qualifications it is said to possess. Unfortunately for Wisconsin, the people have been pretty effectually sold with new grapes having high sounding names and corresponding high prices, until barely mentioning a new grape is considered the introduction to a new humbug. This condition of things is to be regretted, inasmuch as many really good fruits are kept from cultivation because we are unable to know who to believe or what to plant until some one more credulous than we have made the experiment, and we have seen the test.

The Delaware grape, however, has been thoroughly tested and found to combine all the necessary qualities of a good grape, namely, perfect hardiness, a good bearer, and a fine flavor. It originated with A. Thomson, esq., a horticulturist of some note, residing in the village of Delaware in Ohio, from which place it derives its name. The berry is of medium size, of a fine wine color, possessing an exquisite flavor, and ripening three weeks before the Isabella or Catawba.

It is undoubtedly a native, (although this fact has been questioned by some), and a seedling produced from accidental hybridization. Dr. C. W. Grant, probably the most eminent and successful grape grower of the day, if we except Nicholas Longworth, esq., of Cincinnati, says: "The Delaware was so much more than redeemed its early promises of excellence, and taken its place so far in advance of all others, as to surprise even its warmest friends."

Peter Mead, editor of the Horticulturalist, says in the January No. of the present year: "We are willing to risk our reputation on the principal points of our leader of last month." The article referred to was all the most incredulous could ask in favor of the Delaware. He says further: "If we can not do our readers any good, we are determined never knowingly to mislead them; they may therefore put some confidence in whatever we may say of our knowledge. It is thus we endorse the Delaware grape."

Charles Downing, esq., says: "I can scarcely speak of it in measured terms of praise."

Another writer says: "It bears more than we ever saw any other vine bear under the same circumstances. It is one of the hardiest vines we ever saw. It is of robust healthy growth, and the best American grape we ever tested."

A score of others, eminent horticulturalists and grape growers, have spoken strongly in its favor. So that we need not hesitate in planting it freely and expect success.

Choice and Valuable Varieties of Potatoes.

WHITE JACKSON POTATO.—Any person of late visiting Vermont must have heard of this famed variety of potato. It has no superior, if any equal, for baking or boiling. Keeps well for a second season.

PRINCE ALBERT POTATO.—Imported from Michigan. This variety is unequalled for yield, size, and long. Never known to rot. Good and pleasant to eat through any season. In the above three particulars this potato is allowed by all who know anything about it, to stand prominent as the best of the potato kind. I have a few bushels only of this variety.

Both the above are a late potato. Every gardener field ought to have a corner reserved to try them. THE PRINCE ALBERT POTATOES sold by last year, and now to most farmers, can be found at my store. In the above three particulars, Early York, Stoddard's Early Seedling, Early White Crook, Early June, Ash Top Kidney and most other varieties in market, at the Hardware and Seed Store. E. S. BARROWS.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Stapp, formerly of the New York and Erie railroad, but for several years past general freight agent of the Philadelphia and Elmira railroad line, has been appointed general freight agent of the Chicago and North-western railway.

EXAMINATION AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.—We publish the programme of the examination at the High School to-morrow and next day. All interested in the welfare of the city schools would do well to attend this examination, and learn for themselves the progress of the pupils of this institution.

A NOVELTY.—The exhibition at Lappin's Hall, to-night, has some novel features, which the bills state very fully. We presume that those who like entertainments of that character will be pleased with this.

MICHIGAN SOUTHERN RAILROAD.—The annual report of this road shows it to be in a prosperous condition. The gross increase in earnings this year over last is $280,513, and the floating debt has been reduced from $1,086,783 to $437,886.

APPOINTMENT.—John B. Skelly, jr., has been appointed U. S. pension agent at Milwaukee.

DISCHARGED.—The Madison Argus says that a notte prosequi was entered last week, in the circuit court of Dane county, on the indictment of S. M. Booth for the seduction of Caroline Cook. The district attorney of the county resisted the canceling of the bond, but the court ordered it cancelled.

DISCHARGED.—The examination of Truman Stickney for pocket picking resulted in his discharge.

Wm. Quirk, who was arrested on suspicion of murdering Thomas Branks, in the town of Janesville, has also been discharged.

W. C. Frederick has been appointed route agent on the North-western railway.

HIGH WATER.—The recent excessive rains have raised Rock river to an unusual height. We understand that one of the abutments of the Monterey bridge is giving way, and that there is danger to the whole structure.

MANITOWOC APPOINTMENTS.—An editorial communication in the Wisconsin Democrat, dated Washington, March 29th, states that Chas. Esslinger has been appointed postmaster of Manitowoc, and S. W. Smith of the Tribune, collector. McClelland, of Oconto, has been appointed register of the Menasha land office.

After the receipt of the New York report the improvement on No. 3 was lost, the market closing at 80c/84c for the standard grades; no sales. Extra club sold to a limited amount at 87c/88c delivered at mill. No sales of flour were reported to-day.
